Francis Leith, sr. of Elmwood avenue was the victim of a serious accident yesterday afternoon, as the result of getting his right hand into contact with a circular saw which he was using. Mr. Leith was working at his farm on the east hill in Barre town and was sawing wood on the saw. In some way, which he is unable to explain, his hand came into contact with the rapidly revolving teeth of the saw and this index finger of his right hand was severed at the hand and the second finger badly mangled. He was immediately taken to the City hospital, where it was found that the second finger was so badly lacerated that it, too, had to be amputated. Mr. Leith was taken to his home on Elmwood avenue last evening and is resting comfortably to-day.
